

[Opening scene of a close, frontal view of Sheriff Bill Leeper with a background image containing multiple Childrens.]

Sheriff Bill Leeper: There's one week left to submit your application to our Sheriff's Teen Citizen Academy.

[The text, "Sheriff Bill Leeper," pops onto the screen]

Sheriff Bill Leeper:

Hi, I am Sheriff Bill Leeper, and I'm here to tell you if your teenager is still looking for something to do this summer, look no further.

[Shows an image of several kids watching an officer repairing a fence.]

From forensics to firearms training

[Image of two kids holding prop firearms surrounded by three large screens]

and seeing just how our jail works,

[Image of several kids standing in a parking lot surrounded by adults. An officer stands in the front, talking about a homicide case. Yellow tape can be seen blocking parts of the area]

this program will give your kids a chance to learn

[Women holding up a sign. The sign contains a mugshot. The sign reads, "Unsolved Homoside, All Cases can be solved. Please don't forget me. Thomas Buckley.]

what it's like to work in law enforcement. The Sheriff's Teen Citizen Academy is a three-day program, and best of all, it's completely free.

[Sheriff Bill Leeper standing with a kid between two flags. Sheriff Bill Leeper is holding an award certificate, and the kid is holding a book]

If you're interested in signing up, just click on the link posted with this video.

[Close, frontal view of Sheriff Bill Leeper with a background image containing multiple Childrens.]

But hurry up, spots are limited.

[Text pops up, that reads, "Application are due July 1st."]